

About Phonexa

Phonexa is an all-in-one lead tracking and distribution platform that empowers marketers to optimize their web and call campaigns. The ubiquity of mobile phones and “click-to-call” functionality have created massive revenue opportunities from inbound calls—which Phonexa gives businesses the solutions to tap into across multiple channels. Phonexa’s customizable platform for call tracking, lead distribution, and email marketing maximize workflow efficiency for publishers, affiliate networks, and direct advertisers.

Founded in 2016 by marketing entrepreneur David Gasparyan, Phonexa is a SaaS platform conceived and designed by lead generation professionals looking for a more comprehensive solution to increase revenue from inbound leads. The all-in-one solution helps lead generators and buyers in all aspects of their marketing campaigns. Phonexa is proudly headquartered in Glendale, CA. To learn more, please visit www.phonexa.com
